How Active is the Tour?

We don't take long country hikes. We try to use hotels which have elevators and portage for luggage where possible. But you must be in good enough health to travel. Among other things you must be able to –
Stand or walk with our guides, inside and outdoors, sometimes in inclement weather; manage coach steps several times a day; manage your own luggage; climb stairs in some hotels; walk city streets (Edinburgh has some steep hills and steps).

Our Itinerary

Day 1: Sunday, October 1 - Welcome to Scotland! Group members will make their own flight arrangements. Arrive Edinburgh this morning. Spend the day as you wish in this lovely city and check in to your hotel. Meet your tour manager for an early evening welcome dinner. Meals included – welcome dinner Overnight: Edinburgh City Center

Day 2: Monday, October 2 – Let's Go! Our coach takes us to Glasgow. We visit Glasgow Cathedral and pause for a service of welcome – a short act of worship in the Celtic tradition. Our scenic route leads by Loch Lomond to the west coast port of Oban where we catch the ferry to the Isle of Mull. We arrive at our hotel, overlooking lovely Tobermory Bay, in time for dinner. Meals included – breakfast, dinner Overnight: Tobermory, Isle of Mull

Day 3: Tuesday, October 3 – Iona...a Thin Place We drive across the single track road to Fionnphort where another short ferry ride brings us to the Isle of Iona. It was here in the year 563 that St Columba arrived, establishing the Christian faith in this land. In Celtic spirituality Iona is sometimes described as a "thin place" – where the veil between earth and heaven seems almost transparent. We visit the Abbey, learn some of this island's history and hear about the Iona Community. We return to Tobermory for dinner. Meals included – breakfast, dinner Overnight: Tobermory, Isle of Mull

Day 4: Wednesday, October 4 – The Great Glen and Inverness The morning ferry takes us back to the mainland. A distillery visit is on our agenda. And we'll pass by Glen Coe. We travel on through the beautiful scenery of the Great Glen and alongside Loch Ness. Near Inverness we'll visit the Culloden Battlefield where we can learn about Bonnie Prince Charlie and the Jacobites. Meals included – breakfast Overnight: Inverness

Day 5: Thursday, October 5 – I will lift mine eyes unto the hills Turning south, we continue through the majesty of the Scottish Highlands. We'll find out what life used to be like here as we visit the Highland Folk Museum at Kingussie. Then on to Perth and St John's Kirk. John Knox preached here setting light to the Reformation in Scotland. Dinner tonight begins with a haggis ceremony complete with bagpipes and the poetry of Robert Burns. And, of course, you can taste a little. Meals included – breakfast, dinner Overnight – Stirling

Day 6: Friday, October 6 – St Andrews...The Auld Grey Toon Our day begins with a visit to Stirling Castle. Sitting high on a volcanic crag, fortified since ancient times, it provides a memorable visit. From there we drive on to lovely town of St Andrews. Famous for golf today, it has also been a place of pilgrimage and is an important site for Reformation history. One of our excellent guides will lead a walking tour. Meals included – breakfast, dinner Overnight – Stirling

Day 7: Saturday, October 7 – Edinburgh, the Athens of the North We'll have an orientation to Scotland's capital. Our guide will walk us among the medieval streets and will also explain much about modern living in this vibrant city. We see Greyfriars Kirk and hear about the Covenanters. The evening is free for you to choose dinner in one of Edinburgh's many eating places. Meals included – breakfast Overnight – Edinburgh City Center

Day 8: Sunday, October 8 – A Little More Edinburgh Most of today is free for you to explore. You can join a Sunday service in the magnificent St Giles Cathedral then maybe visit the Castle or Holyrood Palace. Or you might want to relax over coffee and watch the city go by. Tonight we will share worship together and close with a celebration dinner. Meals included – breakfast, celebration dinner Overnight – Edinburgh City Center

Day 9: Monday, October 9 – Departures after breakfast Haste ye back!
Meals included – breakfast

The above program is a fair representation of the proposed tour but is subject to change at the discretion of Scotus Tours.

Dear Fellow Traveler,

People are always telling me they would love to visit Scotland. Whether it is the majestic scenery of the highlands which attracts them; or our castles, churches and cities steeped in history; or maybe our proud tradition of hospitality – all these and more combine to make a trip to Scotland an unforgettable experience.

For people of faith Scotland also has much to offer. Christianity came to these shores no later than the sixth century. And the impact of the Reformation has extended far around the world.

I'm a native Scot and minister of the Church of Scotland. I've also served in the PC(USA). So I am delighted to be offering this tour. I want you to enjoy an outstanding trip; to see the real Scotland; to discover, in particular, our sacred heritage. And I run Scotus Tours to make that possible.
